CONVEN[illegible]N ENDED

District Grand Lodge No. 5, B'nai Brith Concludes Interesting Sessions Here.

MEETS NEXT IN SAVANNAH

Officers Elected For Ensuing Year—Delightful Trip Down the Cape Fear to Fort Caswell Yesterday—Delegates.

With a delightful trip down the river on the splendid steamer Wilmington to Fort Caswell where the visitors were permitted through the courtesy of Major Herman C. Schumm, to inspect the magnificent government fortifications, constituting the coast defenses of the lower Cape Fear, and an afternoon session and luncheon on the boat, the 34th annual convention of the Most Worthy District Grand Lodge No. 5, Independent Order B'nai Brith, which has been in session in this city the past two days, came to an end.

The convention adjourned to meet next in Savannah, Ga., on the third Monday in March at which time the Grand Lodge will go over to Atlanta to attend and participate in the exercises of the twentieth anniversary of the founding of the Hebrew Orphans' Home, which is partly a charge of the B'nai Brith. The delegates are looking forward with much pleasure to that occasion. Many of the delegates and visitors who have been attending the Grand Lodge sessions left on the evening train yesterday for their homes, after what they declared was one of the most pleasant and profitable session of the order held in recent years. Wilmington was exceedingly glad to have such a distinguished body of men and women in her midst and hopes that ere long the Grand Lodge may come this way again. It was remarked upon all sides that perhaps never before was there a larger number of lady visitors at a Grand Lodge convention and nowhere were the social features more elaborate or pleasant than at Wilmington.

The convention met promptly at 9:30 o'clock yesterday morning in the Odd Fellows' Hall, Third and Princess streets, President Sig. Gardner presiding; Secretary Jos. L. Levy at his desk and a large majority of the delegates in their places. Various matters of routine were cleared from the calendar, including the hearing of reports, all of which showed the work of the order in satisfactory condition. The election of officers was taken up just before the recess for the trip down the river and the following were chosen for the ensuing year:

President—Henry S. Hutzler, of Richmond, Va.

First Vice President—Montague Triest, of Charleston, S. C.

Second Vice President—Leonard Haas, of Atlanta, Ga.

Secretary—Joseph L. Levy, of Richmond, Va.

Treasurer—Aaron Goodman, of Baltimore, Md.

Sergeant-at-Arms—Marcus W. Jacoba, of Wilmington.

Executive Committee—Officers named above and Julius I. Peyser, Washington; Lionel Weill, Goldsboro; Sidney Tieser, Norfolk.

Representative on Board Trustees Orphans' Home—E. A. Waxelbaum, of Macon, Ga.

Representative on Board of Directors, National Hospital for Consumptives, at Denver—Joseph Hirsch, Atlanta.

Field Deputy—Rabbi J. L. Mayerberg, of Goldsboro.

State Deputies—Maryland, Rabbi Abram Simon, Washington, D. C.; District of Columbia, Dave Wolf, Washington, D. C.; Virginia, Rabbi E. N. Calish; North Carolina, A. A. Joseph, Goldsboro; South Carolina, Rabbi B. A. Elzas, Charleston; Georgia, Rabbi George Solomon, Savannah.

After the election of officers the Grand Lodge adjourned and the officers and delegates with a large number of visitors repaired to the wharf of the steamer Wilmington, whence they departed under a perfectly clear sky for the most delightful trip down the river. As the steamer passed down the beautiful water course the various points of historical interest were pointed out to the visitors, all of whom seemed much interested. The Grand Lodge concluded its sessions on the boat and adjourned to meet as stated. Only one stop was made on the trip and that was for a very short time at Southport, the visitors being taken immediately over to Fort Caswell where they were received with much cordiality, by Major Schumm and staff of officers. The party enjoyed an hour or more in going over the pretty grounds and seeing the splendid fortifications established there by the government. Returning, a delightful lunch was served by the ladies and the outing was one of the most enjoyable features of the programme of social entertainment prepared for the visitors. The boat reached the city about 5:30 o'clock and after exchanging farewell greetings many of the number left for their homes.

Upon the return of the boat members of the Grand Lodge were pained to learn by telegram of the death of Dr. Jacob Vroosaugh, of San Francisco, one of the most prominent B'nai Brith members in the country and a relative of Mr. Waxelbaum, one of the delegates in attendance upon the Wilmington convention. The news of the death cast a shadow of gloom over members of the convention returning to their homes, the telegram being received too late for official action by the Grand Lodge.

The committee in charge of the trip to Fort Caswell yesterday was composed of Mr. Julius Sternberger, chairman; Messrs. I. J. Sternberger, Louis Goodman, B. Goodman, S. Solomon, M. Rosenmann, F. Stern, Sig. Bear, A. Liebman, J. M. Solky and George Honnet.

The general executive committee for the Grand Lodge sessions was composed of Mr. Marcus W. Jacobi, chairman; Mr. Ike W. Solomon, secretary and treasurer; Messrs. Isaac Bear, William Goodman, I. J. Sternberger and Isadore Bear.

BEAUTIFULLY SUNG

Historical Indian Opera Powhatan Rendered By Exceptionally Fine Cast Last Night.

AT THE ACADEMY OF MUSIC

Beautiful Costumes, Catchy Music and Spectacular Electrical Effects—Will be Repeated This Evening.

The historical and tuneful Indian opera, "Powhatan," was beautifully sung to possibly the largest and decidedly the most fashionable audience of the season at the Academy of Music last evening. It was by a large and select cast of the leading vocalists of the city under the direction of Mr. Albert L. Baker, of Chicago, with a magnificent scenic equipment and elaborate costuming. The large audience was charmed with the production and many of the "first-nighters" will hear the music again upon the repetition of the production this evening.

The production was for the benefit of the Wimington Baseball Association and it is good to know that aside from the atistic success of the event, the box office receipts also showed up on the right side of the ledger. The ensemble of the company numbered 150 people and with brilliant electrical effects, which were possible through the courtesy of the Monitor and Merrimac Company, which will hold the boards of the Academy for four nights following, the opera was a magnificent spectacular production. To the accompaniment of Hollowbush's full Academy Orchestra with Miss Mildred Hunt as pianist, the music went with a swing and sweetness that at once captivated the large number of people, regardless of their culture or power of appreciation of the classics. The singing of Miss Anne deR. Harris as Pocahontas in the leading female role; Mr. Herbert Goodwin, as Powhatan, the title rol, as well as all the principals in the cast, was of the professional type and elicited nothing if not the most enthusiastic applause. The comedy situations in the hands of Mr. Henry Angel the Medicine Man; Mr. Albert Baer, as Captain John Smith, and Mr. Harry Voight, as Captain John Rife, were very cleverly taken care of indeed. Others of the principals who won merited applause were Mr. William Watters, as Pathfinder; Mr. WC. Denny, as First Sailor; Miss Alice Arden, as Laughing Star; Mrs. Thomas M. Green, as Song Bird; Miss Florene Kidder, as Minnehaha; Master Chas. Grainger, as Hole-in-The-Ground; Master Edgar Nash, as Rain-in-The-Face, and Baby Frederick A. Fulton Jr., as "Sleeping Beauty."

The Indian chorus in the spectacular dances and posings were charming and were elegantly costumed as follows: Misses Bessie Gore, Thurber Gore, Ge Catlett, Nannie Watters, Elise Emerson, Nellie Savage, Nellie Durham, Charlotte Pleasants, Jennie Cronly, Sadie Booker, Isabell Smallbones, Reba Myers, Kate Myers, Louise Beery, Virginia Bailey, Marguerite Walker, Amorrett Lord, Agnes McQueen, Jennie Woodruff.

They were ably seconded by a corps of Indian warriors who joined in the dances and choruses with most realistic effect.

Others who were seen to advantage in the large chorus and in the dances were as follows:

Fearless Dancers—Misses Ruth Bridgers, Ernestine Bridgers, Francis Bailey, Virginia Taylor, Meta Rountree, Frances Hedrick, Bradey Turrentine, Laura Jacobs, Vida Dickinson, Dorothy Nash, Frankie Berry, Emily Everett, Louise Wise, Hellenor Weil and Louise Weil.

Papooses—Misses Elizabeth Sale, Laura Parsley, Mamie Parsley, Mary Louise Stover, Winnifred Shepard, Maggie Moore, Katherine Williams and Mary Hedrick.

Indian Braves—Messrs. Charlie Grainger, Robert DeRosset, Jr., Robert Willias, Edgar Nash, Henry Angel, Hargrave Bellamy, Harriss Alderman, Harry Watters and Heiskill Gouverneur.

Several cases of more than passing interest were tried by the Mayor yesterday, one of chief interest being that in which Mr. George Honnet, Jr., was charged with exceeding the speed limit in his automobile out Market street Sunday afternoon, the arrest being by Officer C. G. Jones. He was let off with the costs.

A. Atkinson, a soldier, was fined $5 and costs for intoxication. Jane Howe, disorderly conduct at Tenth and Ace, 30 days on the farm. Fred Benn, drunk and disorderly, 30 days on the roads. MRS. ROSANNAH KING DEAD.

Mother of Large Family Entered Into Rest Last Night.

The community will hear with sorrow and with the tenderest sympathy for the large number of bereaved ones of the death of Mrs. Rosannah King, the venerable mother of Alderman W. W. King and a large family of sons in this city, which occurred last night at 10:45 o'clock at the home of Mr. B. R. King, No 808 Wooster street, in the 88th year of her age. Mrs. King had been in the best of health until a very short time ago when she suffered an attack of acute indigestion, one of these attacks having occurred last before her death on Saturday afternoon. She recovered apparently and was well enough to go up the stairs at the home of her son last night without assistance. Soon after retiring, however, she suffered a recurrence of the attack and in a short time had answered the summons that called her to her reward.

Mrs. King was a remarkable woman in many respects. Genial, kindly and with the love of God in her heart, she raised a large family of sons and lived to see all consecrated Christians and with possibly one exception, all licensed to preach the gospel. Of the family of sons, grandsons and great grandsons there are more than a hundred and it was a beautiful custom of the family to gather at the fireside once each year, bring gifts, pray with and receive the blessing of their saintly mother. The last of these reunions was held only a short time ago when Mrs. King reached her 87th birthday. There are surviving five sons, Alderman W. W. King, Police Sergeant B. R. King, Messrs. James M. and Isaac W. King, all of this city, and Rev. Joseph P. King, of Jacksonville, Fla., who was notified last night of the death of his mother and will reach here on the first train. They all have the sympathy of many friends in their deep bereavement and the breaking of the link in the family chain.

The funeral will be conducted from the Primitive Baptist Church on Castle street, of which she had for many years been a consecrated and faithful member. The services will likely be by Elder P. D. Gold, of Wilson, who is expected here tonight. The hour will be announced later.

UNIVERSITY GLEE CLUB.

Jolly College Songs and Orchestra Music Will Hold Forth Here.

Tomorrow night comes the University Orchestra and Glee Club and it is a foregone conclusion that a large audience will greet the collegians. The club will come from Newbern and will be entertained here by old students of the University and in the evening will give one of its delightful concerts, the programme of which will be a popular one.

The advance sale of seats commences this morning at Plummer's. The price of seats is 75 cents and the general admission will be 50 cents.

For the Cyclone Sufferers.

The Postal Telegraph-Cable Company will transmit free on its own lines within the United States, telegrams relating to relief to sufferers from the recent cyclone in the South when such telegrams are offered by duly constituted relief organizations, or by public officers in their official capacity.

CASE COMPROMISED

Widow of Seaboard Engineer Killed in Wreck Receives $10,000 at Raleigh.

THE WAKE PUBLIC SCHOOLS

Affairs in Rather Chaotic Condition—Case of Perjury Before Supreme Court—Labor Convention Adjourns—Notes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, N. C., April 28.—The suit of Mrs. Mary L. Vaughan against the Seaboard Air Line Railway Company for $40,000 damages for the death of her husband, Engineer E. H. Vaughan more than a year ago in a collision near Vass, between Raleigh and Hamlet has been compromised and settled after three days progress of the trial, the agreed verdict of the jury being for $10,0000 damages.

The Harris Chair Company, is chartered by the Secretary of State at Millboro, Randolph county; capital $6,000 subscribed and $50,000 authorized, incorporators are J. W. Allred, J. E. Williamson, T. D. Harris.

Public school matters are in a rather chaotic condition just now in Raleigh between the recent defeat of the election for special school tax to meet the deficit in the school funds caused by the voting out the dispensary, the order of the Raleigh School board that the present term be cut short one month because of lack of funds to complete the term and a counter-action on the part of many school patrons and friends to raise money by private subscription to assure the operation of the schools until the regular closing time, May 29th so that the course of studies for the term may be completed and the graduating certificates awarded to the Senior Class of the High School department. A number of the teachers in various departments or grades have offered to complete the session without pay for the last month. At the same time a number of citizens are volunteering donations toward a fund to complete the term. Quite a number of prominent educators are, however, opposed to any public subscription or, in fact, to the completion of the term by gratuitous service of teachers except that some arrangement should be made for the High School so that there may be no disappointment to the graduates in the matter of certificates.

State Superintendent Joyner says he thinks no such precedent as public subscriptions and gratuitous service should be established as taxation is the only equitable basis for maintaining the schools. He thinks the wise course would be to complete the term of the High School, letting the others close this week. Then next Fall hold an election for needed special tax and make special arrangement for the 1908-09 term. This will likely be done.

Sunday the congregation of the First Presbyterian church here elected Governor Glenn a member of the board of Ruling Elders. Others elected were Hon. Franklin McNeill, corporation commissioner; Hon. J. R. Young, commissioner of insurance and E. B. Crow.

Democratic primaries called for this week, all on Saturday and Alamance, Beaufort, Carteret, Cleveland, Durham, Halifax, Harnett, Haywood, Person, Richmond, Rowan, and Warren.

The case of H. S. Cline, well known citizen of Catawba county, charged with having committed perjury in that he testified in court that he had bribed a member of the Board of County Commissioners of Catawba to vote for him as superintendent of the county home by paying him ten dollars, came up on appeal today when the calendar for the Thirteenth district was called. The appeal is by the State from a ruling by the trial judge quashing the indictment on the ground that the evidence given by Cline setting out the matter of the bribe alleged to be perjury was not pertinent to the case that was trial at the time that Cline was introduced and made the statement that according to the prosecution was perjury.

CHANGED POLITICAL CONDITIONS

The Republican State convention meets in Greensboro tomorrow to nominate a candidate for Governor and for other State officers. It will probably be one of the most representative conventions of that party ever held in this State; that is, there will be present more men who are Republicans from principle and who have the interests of their party and—from their standpoint—of the State and Nation, at heart than usually attend such believe, in future ones.

There are in this State a good many men who, Republicans at heart as to National affairs but who, on account of the manner in which the affairs of the party have been managed—"run"—in the State, have held aloof from all State party concerns. This class of Republicans will be found more active in this campaign and, we believe, the future ones.

There is no use in attempting to conceal the fact that the present changed political conditions have brought about this state of affairs and the leaders of the Democratic party owe it to their party to take note of this fact and to govern themselves accordingly.

There is no danger, of course, that the ticket which will be nominated at Greensboro will be elected. The Old North State is and will remain in the Democratic line; but political conditions are changing, and in some respects changing rapidly. The Republican party in North Carolina of today is not what it was twenty or even ten years ago—who can deny this? And it behooves the Democratic party to take notice of the changes that have come about and are likely to continue to take place and to prepare to meet and counteract them. Because of these changes in the Republican party the Democratic cannot be run along the old lines followed in former days when all that was needed to rally nine out of every ten white men around its standard was to cry "Remember Reconstruction Days" or "Down With Negro Rule." Those days have passed and men have begun to study the real issues which divide the two parties and the basic principles of each of them.

Any man who will consider the question will admit that this change inaugurates a healthier condition of politics. Mind you, we do not want to see grow up in our State a Republican party strong enough to wrest the State government from the Democratic party, but any student of political economy or of the history of governments will tell you that it is for the best for any Nation which has an elective executive or legislative body that there should be something near an equality of strength between the two popular parties contending for control of the government.

Taking this theory to be correct and admitting the truth of the statements as to changed political conditions in our State what Democrat can deny that the Democratic party should change its former tactics to meet the new conditions if it is to continue long to be the party in power it has been since Republican rule was thrown off at the close of reconstruction days?

We hope and pray that North Carolina will continue to remain Democratic and we believe it will continue to be so, but it seems to us that everyone can see the importance, in order to make this Democratic supremacy assured, that the party must meet the changed conditions and lay its course in line with them.

BRYAN AND THE NEGRO QUESTION.

Now and then there has been an intimation in the press and at times something stronger than mere intimation, that Mr. Bryan was not "all right" on the negro question according to the views of the democrats of the Southern States. He seemed averse to making a positive declaration as to his sentiments on this subject and this fact strengthened the conviction of many that he did not care to let his southern friends know what were his true sentiments on this question of so vital importance to them. He has been drawn out on the question at last to some extent. He is quoted as having said to a reporter of a New York paper:

"The white man in the South has disfranchised the negro in self-protection; and there is not a Republican in the North who would not have done the same thing under the same circumstances. Those Republicans in the North who dispute this or say that they are different from the South either are not frank with themselves or are assuming what is not true. The white men in the South will not allow a few men to use the solid black vote to further their own financial and political interests. And that is what was being done."

But still, in the above, Mr. Bryan does not declare that he approves of what the Democrats of the South have done in regard to the negro in politics or of the same action he believes the Republicans of the North would have done if similarly situated.

From the Charlotte Chronicle we take this summary made up by it from an article in The Journal of Commerce on the net and gross incomes of the railroad companies:

"The net income of the railroads continue to show declines, according to official reports. The New York Journal of Commerce says that March net returns have thus far been filed by only seven roads, which is not a sufficient number for a formal comparison. These show a net decrease exceeding 18 per cent., as comparing with gross returns of 15 per cent. Fifty-seven roads for March report gross earning 14 1-2 per cent. below their figures for March, 1907. For February the returns are practically complete and indicate a decrease in net earnings of 25 per cent., as against a reduction of gross income of 11 1-2 per cent."

It seems from this showing that the railroads have not yet recovered from the hard times which struck them a few months ago.

Mr. Roosevelt is not going to let anybody out-do him. Some time ago he predicted that Mr. Taft would receive 500 votes in the National convention on the first ballot, which would give him the nomination with a few to spare. Then came along the New York Herald with its prediction of 508 votes for the Secretary on the first ballot. Immediately Mr. Roosevelt picked his flints, drew a fine bead on the political situation and brought down 700 votes for his man at the first fire. What we do not understand is why Mr. Roosevelt stopped the count on the even number of 700. If he had gone up less than 300 more he could have made it unanimous. That would have been as easy guessing as the other.

The News and Observer thus makes editorial mention of the death of a prominent Presbyterian minister of this State:

"The death of Rev. R. Z. Johnson, of Lincolnton, removes one of the best of the old fashioned big-brained Presbyterian preachers to whom North Carolina owes a big debt. He was a Confederate soldier and after the surrender he was a faithful soldier of the Cross. North Carolina had no worthier leader in patriotism and righteousness."

Of such men as well as of little children is the Kingdom of Heaven.

CURRENT COMMENT.

—By this time it is pretty well known that the Hague conference was nothing but a huge farce. It cost many thousand dollars to "entertain" a company of national representatives who did not expect to accomplish anything when they first "got together." So they adjourned after meaningless pow-wows which lasted many weeks, and anything approaching universal disarmament was as far off as ever.—Asheville Citizen.

—The Newton Enterprise talks politics like a professor. It is a strong Craig paper and, of course, wants to make out the best case possible for its man. Reviewing the situation in the State, it gives this idea as to how matters stand: "Mr. Horne will carry the fourth district. Mr. Kitchin will carry the second and the fifth. Mr. Craig will carry the seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth. In the first, third and sixth, Mr. Craig and Mr. Kitchin will break about even, and Mr. Horne will also get a few votes." When the returns come in, we believe The Enterprise is going to wake to the fact that it is poor sort of a prophet when it comes to handling a three-cornered gubernatorial race. If the Kitchin and Craig people really figure things out in this extravagant way, surprises are coming to them. Keep your eye on Horne.—Charlotte Chronicle.

—Newspapers are not allowed to print advertisements of lotteries and solicit the sale of tickets for such schemes. The liquor evil is a far greater one, and works far more wrong than lotteries can possibly do. Why then cannot newspapers be forbidden to advertise whiskey?—(Opelika News.) For the information of our contemporary, we will state that newspapers are allowed to print advertisements of lotteries; but they are not allowed to send issues containing such advertisements through the United States mail. To forbid the printing by newspapers of such advertisements would be a violation of the first amendment to the constitution of the United States; likewise, to forbid printing by newspapers of whiskey advertisements would be a similar violation. Supposing, for the sake of argument, that such limiting of newspaper advertising would prove constitutional; would it be wise? Would it not lead to laws prohibiting editorial expression in favor of the legal sale of liquors? And why not also the laws prohibiting any editorial expression adverse to the holders of political power?—Mobile Register.

—In a Charlotte special to the Raleigh Evening Times, Mr. J. H. Weddington, until voluntary relinquishment not long ago was chairman of the Mecklenburg Democratic committee for many years, and always recognized as a leader of admirable discernment, is quoted against instructing Denver delegates. "I am in favor of sending an uninstructed delegation," said Mr. Weddington to the Times correspondent, "and letting them use their own judgment and cast the ballot of the State for the best man, and for the man who can bring victory to the Democratic party. If we are going to instruct for one man, why not send one instructed and let him cast the vote of the State for that man, and then come home? We should not send a delegation there bound to one man, but a delegation free to deal with the conditions as they find them at that time." Who can answer the argument here made? Indications multiply that Mr. Bryan's selfish demand upon the party to make itself his in advance for weal or woe—this, too, when the peculiar and altogether unusual political conditions may well produce developments now quite unforeseeable—finds little favor among Southern Democrats who look beyond faction and who combine intelligence with courage.—Charlotte Observer.

—Raleigh Times: Asheville, N. C., April 27.—James Lee, of Virginia, is speeding here, fondly expecting to marry Miss Evelyn Watkins next Tuesday. A great shock, a sad awakening, awaits Mr. Lee. Thanks to Rex Bostic, the marriage of the beautiful young society woman to Mr. Lee is indefinitely postponed. In a word Miss Evelyn is Mrs. Rex Bostic. When Miss Evelyn murmured "Yes" to young Lee she thought she loved him better than any man in the world. She kept on thinking so while her friends congratulated her and prepared her trousseau. Rex Bostic, an old sweetheart of Miss Evelyn, who knew her long before Mr. Lee did, heard of her approaching marriage. Then he realized he loved her better than all the world beside. He hastened here, went to see her, and Miss Evelyn knew she never should have said "Yes" to poor Lee, for another held her heart.

Pretty Wedding Celebrated Last Week at Bride's Home in Shallotte.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Shallotte, N. C., April 22—The home of the bride's relatives, Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Thomas, of Shallote, Brunswick county, was the scene of a beautiful home wedding, when Miss Dora Thomas became the bride of Dr. Middie H. Grainger. The bride wore a gown of point de sprite over white taffeta and carired bride's roses. Miss Sue Thomas, cousin of the bride, acted as maid of honor in a very charming manner. The ceremony was performed in the parlor at 8:00 P. M., by Rev. J. J. Adams, of Whiteville. Refreshments were served in the nicely decorated dining room at 10:30 P. M. After the guests had partaken of the spread, the bride in a most charming manner cut the bride's cake and served it to the guests. Mrs. Grainger is a woman possessed with many charms, and has a host of friends. Dr. Grainger is a young dentist of Whiteville, and bids fair to make a high mark in his profession. We wish them much happiness in life.

BARLEY AND HOPS—a food and a tonic. A trifle of alcohol—an aid to digestion. That's beer. If you get a pure beer—well aged—nothing is better for you.

It is not good advice to say "Don't drink beer." There are many who need it.

Your doctor advises beer. The healthiest peoples of the world drink the most of it.

But it is good advice to say, "Don't drink the wrong beer." Some beer causes biliousness. Schlitz does not.

Schlitz beer is both good and good for you.

Nine people in ten would be better for drinking it.

Schlitz is the home beer, because of its absolute purity. It is aged for months, then filtered, then sterilized. There are no after effects.

Ask for the Brewery Bottling.
Common beer is sometimes substituted for Schlitz.
To avoid being imposed upon, see that the cork or crown is branded Schlitz.

DAVID

You hear some talk these days about economy; maybe you're being economical yourself. It's a good thing; we believe in it; but it's best to be clear as to what economy is.

Economy isn't buying cheap stuff because it's low priced; nor paying too much for good stuff because it's good.

Real economy is measured by comparing what you get with what it costs; a question of proportion, not price.

That's why you ought to buy our Hart Schaffner & Marx clothes; they're all-wool; perfectly tailored; correct in style. You get better value and bigger returns for your money in these goods than in any other.

MONITOR AND MERRIMAC.

Interesting War Time Exhibit at Academy This Week.

The Academy is now to offer something decidedly novel and striking in an electrical reproduction of the big ocean fight between the Monitor and the Merrimac. This attraction will open a four days' engagement with a matinee Saturday afternoon and will give two exhibitions then and two Saturday evening. Two performances will also be given Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday evenings and for the night exhibitions the prices will be 10, 20 and 30 cents and for the matinee 10 and 20 cents.

This panorama is direct from the Jamestown Exposition and numerous new features have been added since the closing of the ter-centennial to make it more interesting and pleasing. While seated in the playhouse you can see the various ships which composed the Federal and Confederate fleets as they plough through the ocean waters. The first event which is depicted on the stage is the destruction of the Federal battleship, the Cumberland, which sinks, carrying down with it every officer and member of the crew on board. This is followed by the burning of the Federal battleship, the Congress, which event, when it took place off the shores of Virginia, is described by an eye-witness as being the grandest sight he ever saw. The sight as it appears on the stage is almost if not as grand as the real destruction. An experienced and competent lecturer delivers a talk at every performance, explaining all of the historical facts and the minutest movements. The big guns can be seen belching out volley after volley of leaden missiles and the Congress as it slowly burns to the water's edge.

THE BEACH OPENING UP.

Extra Freight Schedule and an Additional Passenger Trip.

On account of the number of people now living on the beach the Tidewater Power Company will put on a morning freight trip beginning next Saturday. On and after that day the freight car will leave 9th and Orange streets daily at 10 A. M. This is in addition to the 4 o'clock trip.

Also on Saturday nights, beginning with next Saturday, there will be an additional car added to the regular passenger schedule, this car to leave Front and Princess streets for the beach at 12 o'clock at night.

One or two families moved down to the beach this week, and it is understood that there will be several more move down next week.

An Approaching Marriage.

Invitations reading as follows have been received in the city: "Mrs. M. A. Price invites you to be present at the marriage of her daughter, Mary Agnes, to Mr. Frederick Neale Finks, on the afternoon of Tuesday, the fifth of May at half after five o'clock, at three hundred and seventeen South Fifth street, Wilmington, North Carolina. At home 115 Maple Avenue, Covington, Virginia."

LOCAL DOTS.

—First Church of Christ, Scientist, Carolina Place: Services this evening at 8:15 o'clock. All are invited.

—The annual meeting of the lot owners in Bellevue Cemetery will be held tonight at 8 o'clock at the office of the secretary, Mr. Walter E. Yopp, on Princess street. A full attendance is desired.

—Building permits were issued yesterday as follows: J. G. Ittner, two-story, frame store on Market, between 16th and 17th, to cost $1,200. Dr. D. W. Bulluck, one-story five-room dwelling to cost $650, Walnut between Eighth and Ninth streets.

—Elder P. D. Gold, of Wilson, is expected here this evening and will preach at the Primitive Baptist Church, on Castle street, tonight at 8 o'clock. He is one of the foremost men of his church and the public is cordially invited to hear him.

—Postmaster T. E. Wallace left last night for Raleigh to attend the State Republican Convention at Greensboro. Mr. Wallace and Mr. W. J. Meredith are alternates to the convention while Messrs. D. L. Gore and J. W. Brooks are the regularly elected delegates. The convention meets Thursday.

—The schooner William Thomas Moore, Captain Bell, was cleared yesterday by C. D. Maffitt with cargo of 299,721 feet pine and cypress lumber, consigned by the Waccamaw Lumber Company, to New York. The British steamer Ardgowan, Captain Putt, which has been discharging cargo of kainit here, was cleared light by Messrs. Heide & Co., also for New York.

WEDDING BELLS.

Three Couples Plighted Their Troth at Hymen's Altar Yesterday.

At the home of her sister, Mrs. C. R. Anderson, on South Front street, yesterday evening at 6 o'clock, in a very pretty ceremony performed by the Rev. W. E. Hocutt, pastor of Bladen Street M. E. church, Miss Allethea Maultsby became the bride of Mr. John D. Player, a prominent young man of Pender county. A few friends were present to witness the ceremony, following which the couple received the happiest congratulations of friends and left on the northbound train for their future home in Pender county. They have the best wishes of many friends for their future happiness.

THE McINTYRE FAILURE.

Sensational Developments Promised—Subpoena May Come For Him.

(Special Star Telegram.)

New York, April 28.—Developments of a most sensational nature in connection with the failure of the big brokerage firm of T. A. McIntyre & Co., may be expected within a few days. In an effort to secure creditors of the company, Receiver Charles C. Belingham today filed a petition in the Federal Court to determine all the partners of the firm. This move by Mr. Burlingham's counsel, Irving L. Ernst, is intended to fix the liability of all members of the firm.

"We will be able to reach Mr. McIntyre in North Carolina with a Federal subpoena," said Mr. Ernst, "also his brother John, and his son, Thomas, Jr., who have not been at their offices since last Friday. The other members are Edward T. White, George C. Ryan, James H. Hudson and James E. Hulshizer, all of whom are liable, although two of these claim to have arranged to leave the firm May 1st."

When asked for a bill of particulars as to the missing $400,000 worth of securities in which customers of the firm had a substantial interest, Mr. Ernst pointed to a high stack of letters written to Receiver Burlingham, among which was one from a man in Chapel Hill, N. C., the State in which McIntyre has a country home, demanding the return of ten shares of Erie he says he left with the firm.

Mr. McIntyre is known positively to be at his place near Wilmington, N. C., which property the receiver says, will be attached in the courts in a few days when the full status of the partnership has been determined.

Local Sports

One of the biggest athletic events of the season will be the meet at The Casino Friday night of this week when Tommie Ryan, middleweight champion of North Carolina, will meet the welterweight champion of Virginia, Edward Schultz, who comes down from Norfolk to meet the Scotch lad. Schultz is short and stocky, right much after the build of McLeod and comes with a confidence that he can throw Ryan. The local champion is just as confident that he cannot and the meet Friday night will decide the question at issue.

For the match round trip tickets, admitting to the Casino, will be sold for $1 and a great crowd of the sports is expected. There will be a special car immediately following the 8 o'clock car. In addition to the main bout there will be a preliminary between Young Gilbert and James Berg, of the Cutter Seminole. Then for a grand finale there will be a sparring match between Ed Williamson and Douglass Yarborough, well known colored "champeens."

A NOTABLE GATHERING

Of Catholic Hierarchy in the City of New York—A Most Imposing Procession and Ceremony —Notable Prelates.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, April 28.—Not since the last plenary council of Baltimore has there been such a gathering of Catholic hierachy as that which assembled today in St. Patrick's cathedral and offered public thanksgiving for the completion of a hundred years of Catholicism in New York. With two exceptions every archbishop in the country was present, and all of the leading bishops and numerous heads of the various religious orders. The Archbishops were Ryan, of Philadelphia; Ireland, of St. Paul, Glennon, of St. Louis; Keane, of DuBuque; O'Connell, of Boston; Blenk, of New Orleans; Quigley, of Chicago; Moeller, of Cincinnati, and Farley, of New York, and at their head America's representative in the sacred college, Cardinal Gibbons. Monsignor Falconio, the apostolic delegate, represented the Vatican, and at the close of the ceremonies imparted the papal benediction.

The thanksgiving was in the form of a pontificial mass, the celebrant being another Prince of the Church, Cardinal Lodge, of Ireland, and close to 6,000 persons were gathered in the cathedral long before the mass began and as many more stood in Fifth avenue.

At exactly 11 o'clock hundreds of surpliced clergy filed out of the colple raiment. These were followed by some fifty bishops and their chaplains, then the monsignori clad in their purple raiment. These were followed by the representatives of the numerous religious orders, the Jesuits and Dominicans, the Franciscans and the Passionists the Carmelites and the Benedictines and Abbot Obrecht, the head of the Trappists of Gethsemane, Ky. Then came the higher ranks of the prelacy, the archbishops, and finally the Irish cardinal robed in the red of a Prince of the Church. As soon as he and his chaplain had turned into Fifth avenue, the crowds greeted him with enthusiastic cheers. The cardinal lifted his hand and immediately the cheers were hushed and the crowds fell on their knees and he blessed them, then passed into the cathedral.

The cardinal was escorted to the Archbishop's throne and there vested for mass. At the end of the Gospel, Cardinal Gibbons, the American cardinal, in his long flowing red robes, walked slowly into the sanctuary, bowed first to the representative of the pope, Mgr. Falconio, then to the Irish cardinal. A moment later, Cardinal Gibbons mounted the pulpit and delivered a masterly and comprehensive discourse.

ANOTHER MISTAKE IN ORDERS

Consequently Collision of Two Cars and Many Dead and Wounded.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Detroit, Mich., April 28.—Two large interuban trolley cars on the Detroit, Jackson and Chicago Railway, a part of the Detroit United Railway system, running from Detroit to Jackson, collided head on this afternoon while running about forty-five miles an hour, twenty five miles west of here, near Ypsilanti. Six men were killed and about thirty men and women injured, some of them seriously. All of the severely wounded were taken to the University hospital at Ann Arbor. A mistake in orders on the part of Motorman Isa Fay, of the limited car, who was crushed to death beneath his vestibule, is alleged to have caused the collision. It is charged that he overran his orders.

The limited car, comfortably filled with about forty people, left Ypsilanti, at 2.17 o'clock for Detroit. The running time of the car was changed today and reduced so that Motorman Fay left Ypsilanti 10 minutes earlier than he had been accustomed. Instead of stopping at Harris Switch, about two miles west of the scene of the accident, where, it is said by the officials of the road, the cars should have passed, the limited rushed by the crossing point at high speed. As it rounded a curve four miles east of Ypsilanti, the local car flashed into view also running at high speed. It was a hopeless effort to stop the heavy cars and they crashed together with terrific impact. Motorman Wingrove, of the local car, jumped when he saw that the collision was inevitably, but Motorman Fay stuck to his vestibule. The local was built higher than the limited so that as they met, its body rode up over the heavy flooring and iron work of the limited and telescoped it for nearly thirty feet. Hardly a passenger escaped injuries of some sort.

UNINSTRUCTED DELEGATES.

Appointed to Denver Convention by the Delaware Democracy.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Trenton, N. J., April 28.—Today's Democratic State convention to select delegates to the National convention at Denver selected a delegation that is uninstructed except as to voting under the unit rule. A resolution to instruct the delegation in favor of W. J. Bryan was voted down.

Former United States Senator James Smith, Jr., an anti-Bryan man, was in full control of the convention and succeeded, by a large majority, in defeating the aspirations of Robert Davis, of Hudson county, and James E. Martine, of Union county, the latter a personal friend of Mr. Bryan's, who wanted to go to Denver as delegates at large.

The proposition to have the delegates governed by the unit rule was adopted by a viva voce vote. This was interpreted at the time as an anti-Bryan movement as only four of the twenty district delegates were known to be Bryan men. These were the four from Hudson county, where Leader Robert Davis had declared for the Nebraskan.

Just before the convention adjourned former Congressman Allen Benny offered a resolution instructing the delegates to vote for William J. Bryan's nomination of President. Senator Smith moved to table the resolution and this was done on a viva voce vote.

THE COMMODITY CLAUSE

Of the Railway Rate Bill to Go Into Effect Next Friday.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, April 28.—The commodity clause of the railroad rate bill will go into effect within three days, May 1st, unless a resolution is passed suspending its operation. Senator Culberson today objected to the consideration of a resolution giving such relief to the railroads. He called attention to the fact that this resolution, which was introduced by Senator Elkins and referred to the committee on inter-state commerce, had been reported promptly, but said that the car shortage bill had been before the committee two sessions and had not been acted upon.

Mr. Elkins said that only one side of the controversy over the car shortage had been heard, which statemen Mr. Culberson emphatically denied Then Mr. Elkins said that the ca shortage bill had nothing to do wit the commodity clause resolution.

Mr. Elkins was permitted to perfec his resolution along lines suggeste by the attorney general and the inte state commerce commission and it wa ordered printed, but consideration wa deferred until tomorrow.

SPIRITS TURPENTINE

—Salisbury Post: Virgil Holmes, a Spencer darkey, of family, is laid up with a bullet in his hip as a result of his attendance upon the festival at Spencer Monday night.

—Charlotte Observer: The North Carolina synod of the Lutheran church will meet in its 105th annual convention on Wednesday, April 29th, at China Grove. The sessions will be held in the Lutheran chapel, of which Rev. C. A. Brown is pastor. The synodical sermon will be preached by Rev. Geo. H. Cox, D. D., the president, at 11 o'clock.

—The Robesonian: Messrs. W. E. Hearn and J. E. Turlington, who are connected with the government soil survey department and who have been engaged in making a soil survey of Robeson county for several months, began work with Lumberton as headquarters last Thursday. They will complete the survey for the county from this point in about three months.

—News and Observer: The citizens of Raleigh and the patriotic teachers in the public schools of Raleigh township are rising to the emergency in the life of the schools, and their actions are such as to justify the belief that the public schools, or the greater part of those of Raleigh township will be continued through the twenty-ninth of May, in place of being closed next Friday, a month ahead of time.

—Enfield, N. C., April 27.—Mr. B. F. Turner, a saw filer at the Hause saw mill in this county, died from injuries received Tuesday, when he was crushed between a locomotive and a flat car. He was riding on the tender of the locomotive which was backed down the track to get some cars. The engine struck the cars with great force before he could escape after he saw his danger.

—Charlotte Observer: Washington, April 27.—Mr. Thomas Settle, of Asheville, is in the city, stopping at the Raleigh. When asked concerning his business in Washington, he said that he was here to see a few friends Later in the day he was seen entering the room of Speaker Cannon at the Capitol. Mr. Settle is a delegate from Mecklenburg to the State convention at Greensboro Thursday.

—Kinston Free Press: The condition of Mrs. Howard Bain who was brutally shot Wednesday night while lying in bed at her home in Goldsboro, by her husband remains unchanged and the physicians entertain no hope of her recovery. The tragedy was the outcome of jealousy on the part of the wife, who protested against her husband's attentions to another woman. Her interference seemed to anger young Bain and resulted in the shooting. Bain is in jail pending the result of his wife's injuries.

—Industrial News: The North Carolina Academy of Science will hold its annual meeting next Friday and Saturday, May 1 and 2, at the State Normal and Industrial College. T. Gilbert Pearson is the president of the organization, and Dr. E. W. Gudger, of the State Normal and Industrial College, is secretary. Scientific research is the object of the Academy of Science, as its name implies ,and at the meeting here a number of papers will be read and a variety of subjects will be discussed. The senior and junior classes of the college will entertain the organization with a reception.

—Charlotte Chronicle: One of the most important actions taken by the State Convention of Christian Endeavor at its annual session, held last week at Elon College, was the dividing of the State into districts in the interest of the Junior Work and the appointment of a superintendent for each district. These superintendents will work under the direction of Rev. J. S. Williams, of Asheville, the State superintendent of the Junior Work. There is a rapid growth of Junior societies of Christian Endeavor in the eight denominations of the State that are giving most support to this society as a helpful organization for the children and young people of the church.

—Maxton, N. C., April 27.—About daylight yesterday morning, little Dannie McNatt, the 12-year-old nephew of Dr. H. W. McNatt, was seriously bitten on the hand and hip by a rabid dog. Hearing a disturbance among the chickens, the boy went out in the yard to find out the trouble and seeing the dog, threw a hatchet, the first thing in sight, at him, when the animal immediately attacked him and bit him as described. The little fellow was taken to Richmond yesterday for Pasteur treatment. When the dog left Dr. McNatt's residence, he went down Main street fighting and biting several other dogs, and later attacking Mr. J. A. Peacock, who succeeded in kicking him off without being bitten. The dog was hunted by a number of people, but escaped and so far as is known is stil' at large.

—Wilson Times: About 8 o'clock this morning the intelligence reached Wilson that an unknown negro visited the house of a Mr. Clark, who resides on the Norfolk and Southern about six miles north of here and made a dastardly attempt to assault her while her husband was in the field plowing and she was alone in the house. It seems the lady was in the kitchen at work, when this negro slipped into the house unawares and when she returned, grabbed her around the waist, throwing her down while she struggled to free herself. About that time, fortunately, her brother appeared on the scene, ran in the house grabbed a gun and fired at the negro, as he ran from the house. He is uncertain whether the shot took effect. Sheriff Sharpe was notified and sent Mr. John Lucas with his hounds and Mr. J. B. Paschal after the negro. They are scouring the woods for him at this writing.

For Female Ills

Strange Symptoms

Those symptoms, that you do not understand, are very likely due, if you are a woman, to womanly disease. Frequently female disorder is so insidious, that no local pain is experienced, but just a feeling of misery, all-over, and a general nervous, irritable, depression, that has driven many a sufferer to the brink of desperation.

In such cases, Wine of Cardui can be depended on to bring relief and renewed interest in life. Being a strengthening, building, female tonic, it renews the vital forces, invigorates the womanly organs and puts strength where women most need it.

MRS. M. WILSON, Saco, Mo.

"I do not know, "writes Mrs. Martha Wilson, "that I can command words, to tell you how grateful I am to Cardui, for giving me back my health again.

"I was troubled with prolapse for 3 or 4 years; unable, a great deal of the time, to do my work.

"After taking one bottle of Cardui, I was able to do my work." Sold everywhere.

BUG DEATH

One of the great growers of seed potatoes in Maine who has made a life study of Irish potatoes, has demonstrated beyond question that it is impossible to apply Paris Green to potato vines in any quantity without weakening the vitality of the tuber. Bug Death will not injure the plant but will stimulate its growth. It will not wash off, it is perfectly harmless to animals and people, and has a wonderful power to prevent blight, rust and those diseases so generally prevalent among melons and vegetables.

THE COTTON MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

New York, April 28.—The cotton market was weak and unsettled today with prices making new low records, and closed barely steady at a net decline of 13 to 19 points. Sales were estimated at 275,000 bales.

The market opened weak at a decline of 12 to 16 points with May selling at 8.03, or 19 points net lower during the first few minutes as a result of notices, weak cables and favorable weather. There was active liquidation at the start but it was soon seen that interests who had issued May notices, estimated at about 35,000 bales, were buying that position against sales of July at differences ranging from 15 to 20 points, and when it became evident that the notices were being taken care of, the market rallied on covering of shorts.

After selling up to within 6 to 7 points of last night's final, however, prices weakened again under renewed Southern selling with July and later positions breaking into new low ground during the afternoon and the close was at the lowest point of the day on those months. After the notices were out of the way, May was comparatively idle and steady, suggesting that the speculative interest in that position was practically evened up. Cables from Germany denied yesterday's rumors of short time, but generally speaking advices from trade sources showed little improvement. The Southern selling is considered the unfavorable feature of the present situation and evidently acts as a check on local bull support. Southern spot markets were unchanged to 1-8c lower.

Receipts at the ports today 11,909 bales against 11,729 last week and 25,370 last year. For the week 60,000 bales against 58,757 last week and 73,081 last year. Today's receipts at New Orleans 4,217 bales against 2,092 last year and at Houston 1,795 bales against 3,621 last year.

Cotton: Spot closed nominal, middling uplands 10.00; middling gulf 10.25; sales 469 bales.

Futures opened weak and closed barely steady.

DRY GOODS MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, April 28.—The dry goods market was quiet today. Many buyers are coming in however, and while they are not operating freely they are stating that they anticipate placing more business in the near future. Exports are quiet with the Far East but a fair miscellaneous trade is passing. Linings remain quiet, save that a slightly better demand is noticed from the clothing trade. Cotton yarns are lower.

NEW YORK STOCK MARKET.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New York, April 28.—The stock market today gave a striking demonstration of strength and expanded substantially in volume. Sales also were the largest since the panic period in October. Union Pacific was the conspicuous leader of the movement and its price has recovered more in proportion than any other stock in the list.

Today's movement carried with the stock in closest sympathy other members of the trans-continental group in which conditions resemble most clearly those of Union Pacific. The aggressive advance in prices of railroad stocks, in face of the insistent complaints of railroad officials of contracted earnings and government restrictions which hamper efforts for recovery, makes an impressive contrast and suggests a motive of policy designed apparently to assuage public hostility. The indulgence sought for the proposal to advance freight rates now under active discussion, is a measure in point. That measure was much discussed as a factor in the rise in prices today. Of more immediate effect was the belief that support has been secured for the coming Union Pacific bond issue, with large foreign participation. The issuance of the call by secretary of the treasury for return of $45,000,000 of government deposits with the banks, a first installment of $20,000,000 payable on or before May 9 met an expression long held in the financial district and caused not a ripple. The unevenness of the day's strength left some conspicuous stocks with not enough vantage ground on the reaction, when profit taking set in, to leave any of their gains. The changes show a sprinkling of losses in consequence. Bonds were irregular. Total sales, par value, $4,540,000. United States bonds were unchanged on call. Total sales today 1,112,000 shares.

BILL PASSED BY THE SENATE

The Pension and The District of Columbia Appropration Bills Go Through.

THE PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Read in Both Houses—Some Parts Evoke Applause on Both Sides—A Tribute to President. —Other Matters.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, April 28.—The pension and the District of Columbia appropriation bills were passed by the Senate today. In addition the message of the President urging a legislative programme was read and another chapter of Senator Warner's speech on the Brownsville affray was read.

Several measures of minor importance and the resolution of the House to give government aid to cyclone sufferers in the South were passed. The resolution to extend the time when the commodity clause of the railroad rate law shall become operative was called before the Senate by Mr. Elkins but went over under objection from Mr. Culberson. The Senate at 5:27 P. M. adjourned.

In the House.

Ostensibly considering the Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill the House devoted most of its time today to speeches covering a wide range of subjects and concluded the session by giving an attentive hearing to the President's special message. When the portion of the message referring to the multi-millionaire "whose son is a fool and his daughter a foreign princess" was reached, there was a storm of applause equally prominent on both sides of the House.

Mr. Leak, of New Jersey, made some caustic remarks on the President evoking applause on the Democratic side.

Sumptuary laws and especially the shutting out from army posts of the canteen were the subjects of remarks by Mr. Goebel, of Ohio.

Predicting that "Roosevelt policies" would prevail at the next National Republican convention, Mr. Madison, of Kansas, paid a glowing tribute to the President, declaring that his forestry achievements alone had realized "the dream of the ages."

The great advantage the country would reap from the manufacture of all of its cotton instead of sending two-thirds of that product abroad was the subject of a stirring speech by Mr. Byrd, of Mississippi. By abandoning protective tariff principles, Mr. Byrd believed that result would be achieved.

Need for further educational restriction in immigration was discussed by Mr. Burnett, of Alabama, who deprecated the condition of immigrants from Southern Italy.

Mr. Aiken, of South Carolina, advocated the passage of his bill to limit the jurisdiction of Federal control over inter-State commerce to permit States to control the liquor traffic within their borders.

Representative Keifer discussed pension legislation and directed caustic criticism towards bills introduced by his colleague, General Sherwood.

Later Mr. Ansberry, of Ohio, in a brief speech defended pension measures presented by General Sherwood and expressed regret that two veterans of the war should be at odds over pension legislation.

Other speeches were made by Representatives Hitchcock, of Nebraska; Vreeland, of New York, and Hamlin, of Missouri.

At 5.05 o'clock the House took a recess until 11.30 o'clock tomorrow.

MR. LILLEY'S CHARGES.

Against Electric Boat Company Refuted by Admiral Bowles.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Washington, April 28.—One of the main charges of Representative Geo. L. Lilley, of Connecticut, against the Electric Boat Company, namely that the company has received excessive profits on its contracts with the United States government, was flatly denied today by Admiral Francis T. Bowles, formerly chief of the bureau of construction of the navy department and now president of the Fore River Shipbuilding Company, which is building the boats for the Electric Company.

Admiral Bowles stated that the Octopus, the last submarine boat built for the government, but which has not been accepted, will cost the Electric Boat Company for construction alone $235,000. This figure does not include royalties or the general expenses of the Electric Company, and he thought that the total cost of the boat would exceed the contract price of $250,000.

A number of other witnesses were examined today by the committee in an effort to close up the inquiry. Adjournment was taken until Thursday.

NOT TO CLOSE DOWN

None of the Anderson Mills to Stop Work as Reported Last Week.

(By Wire to the Morning Star)

Augusta, Ga., April 28.—A special to the Chronicle from Anderson, S. C., says: A press dispatch sent out from Spartanburg Saturday night said that the cotton mills of the Piedmont sections of this State and North Carolina would close down indefinitely on July 1st unless there should be a speedy rise in the price of cotton goods. None of the Anderson mills were represented at the meeting of the cotton manufacturers held in Spartanburg on Saturday and none of the cotton mills of this county expects to close down.

OLD-TIME CONVENTION

Of Republicans in South Carolina—A Negro Chairman—Captain Capers Hurls Negro From Rostrum—Delegation.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Columbia, S. C., April 28.—The Republican State convention convened here at 12 o'clock today. E. H. Deas, chairman of the State Executive Committee, who is a negro, was elected temporary chairman.

The morning session was uneventful, but just before the convention was called to order for the afternoon, E. B. Thompson, a negro, a former mail carrier in Columbia, was presiding over a recess meeting at which various delegates spoke.

Captain John G. Capers, United States Collector of Internal Revenue and National Republican Committeeman from South Carolina, stepped upon the platform and was introduced by Thompson as a "good democrat." After this the two men faced each other and Thompson brandished a large hickory stick, which he was using as a gavel, in the face of Captain Capers.

Seeing that the negro was bent upon a row, Captain Capers hurled him from the platform, the negro falling upon his head. About a dozen white men and a large number of negroes, friends of Capers, surrounded him and for ten or fifteen minutes pandemonium reigned.

Chairman Deas after hammering on a table for ten or fifteen minutes finally restored a semblance of order and recognized T. L. Grant, of Charleston, who read resolutions of sympathy on the death of the late Bishop Ellyson Capers, father of Captain Capers. Those resolutions were seconded by "General" Robert Small, former negro Congressman from Beaufort and Dr. W. D. Crum, collector of the port of Charleston, who pleaded for their adoption. The resolutions were adopted.

Following this Captain Capers was recognized to read the report from the committee on credentials and nomination.

After thanking the convention for the sympathetic reference to his father, Capers asked that no votes be given him on his father's account. He then read the resolutions which recommended E. R. Tolbert, for collector of internal revenue of South Carolina in the event that Major Micah Jenkins, was transferred to the army, and that the railroads be required to give the same accommodations to negroes that it does the whites.

The resolutions commended the administration of President Roosevelt and pledged support to the nominee of the Republican convention at Chicago who ever he might be.

Captain Capers said that he wished the delegates to go uninstructed and he believed that any good Republican could again defeat W. J. Bryan.

Delegates at large and alternates were elected as follows:

At Large—John G. Capers, Greenville; L. W. C. Blalock, of Goldville; T. L. Grant, Charleston, and E. H. Deas, Darlington.

Alternates—R. R. Tolbert, Abbeville; Robert Smalls, Beaufort, R. J. Logan, Greenwood; L. D. Melton, Columbia, and R. H. Richardson.

The friends of the administration were in complete control of the convention. After the convention adopted the platform Aaron Prioleu attempted to organize a separate convention and elect delegates opposed to the administration.

This availed nothing, however, as the would-be bolters were present throughout the convention and took part in its deliberations, protesting only after it had adjourned.

FOR THE STORM SUFFERERS.

Food in Plenty Received—Money Contributions Held Up.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

New Orleans, April 28.—Food in plenty today reached the tornado sufferers in every part of Louisiana and Mississippi. Clothing and cook stoves also were supplied communities where the destitution was greatest, and the relief committees here and in other cities were able to turn their attention to the rebuilding of some of the ruined towns. Instructions were given to hold most of the money contribution of which there is now in sight between $25,000, and $50,000, until investigation showed how best to aid in the rebuilding.

Purvis, Miss., the most needy of all the stricken communities, furnished a striking example of business pluck today when the Bank of Purvis re-opened. There was no roof over the banking rooms but militia guarded the buildings.

Preparations for accepting relief offered by the Federal government went forward rapidly under the direction of the governors of the devastated States.

A COMMITTEE HEARING.

On the Bill for Government Purchase of Jamestown Exposition Grounds

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, April 28.—The proposition that the government buy the Jamestown grounds on Hampton Roads to be used as a naval station, as outlined by the Daniel bill, was heard by the Senate committee on naval affairs today. Statements were made by Senator Daniel and T. J. Wool, counsel for the Exposition Company.

Henry St. John Tucker and H. Martin and C. B. Johnston, of the company were present as was also Representative Maynard of Virginia, who has a similar bill in the House. The bill provides for an appropriation of $960,000 for the purchase of the land, and the cancellation of the debt of $887,000, which is owed to the government. No action was taken by the committee.

MORE EVIDENCE OF PAPER TRUST

Submitted to The House Special Committee of Investigation.

COMBINATION OF MILLS

Facts and Figures Given by Mr. Norris of the American Newspaper Publishers Association to Show Truth of Charge.

(By Wire to the Morning Star.)

Washington, April 28.—Before the select committee of the House which is investigating the subject of the tariff on wood pulp as affecting the price of news print paper and also whether or not there is a combination of paper makers in restraint of trade, Mr. John Norris, representing the paper committee of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, today submitted further evidence in support of the Association's charge that such a combination exists and that the price of paper has been arbitrarily raised. He refuted the contention of the manufacturers that this increase in price has been partly due to higher freight rates, and submitted a communication from the Inter-State Commerce Commission showing the freight rates from the principal mills to the larger consuming points, from which it appeared that with one or two exceptions there had been no increase for several years, and in two instances the statement showed a reduction in rates.

The committee will meet tomorrow at 10 o'clock at which time Mr. Norris will enter upon the fourth day of his examination.

Mr. Norris began his recital by submitting further evidence regarding the shutting down of mills. Particular attention was called by him to the statement of the Hamilton (Ohio) Daily Republican-News that it was claimed that the Niagara Falls mills were closed down because of "No water." Mr. Norris ridiculed the idea of the claim of no water at Niagara Falls.

Mr. Norris quoted a number of publishers as having knowledge that the product of important mills either had been acquired by large selling agencies or the rate of their output merged.

He submitted answers to a number of questions propounded to newspapers showing that agents had stated that the Wisconsin mills had sold out to the International Company, that the output of the Booth mill in Canada is controlled by Allen McEnnery & Co., of Chicago; that the Carthage, N. Y., mill (West end) is controlled by the Central Ohio Paper Company; the J. W. Butler Paper Company had a special agent in New York; that the excess of the St. Croix Company is taken by the International Company; that the treasurer or some other officer of the International Company had bought a block of Finch, Pruyn & Co.'s; that the Oswego Falls P. & P. Co., supposed to be independent, attended meetings of the manufacturers in New York, and that the Finch interests in the Finch-Pruyn Company had been acquired by the International Company.

Statements relating to experiences of publishers with Canadian mills were put in evidence. Some publishers certified that they were receiving considerable paper at the same price as from mills in the United States. others spoke of the disinclination of Canadian mills to take orders or enter into contracts.

Replying to Mr. Mann, Mr. Norris said he was unable to state how many Canadian mills were closed. The Sturgeon Falls, he said, had not been after the stock and was shut down. He understood this was due primarily to early and high financing.

Mr. Mann thought the publishers association should seize the opportunity of Canadian mills closing to acquire the mills.

Mr. Norris replied that his association received on an average of three propositions a week containing opportunities for location of newsprint paper mills in Canada with limitless timber tracts and numerous power sites. He said that one consular report showed that in the Province of Quebec there were 745,000,000 cords of wood pulp timber—"enough to keep the United States in spruce wood for all of its paper manufacture for over 200 years if there was not a particle of reproduction in any other Canadian forests."
